THE YEAR 1878

The year 1878 now only exists in history In this country no very exciting events have happened We have reason to congratulate ourselves over the record of 1878, when we glance at the rest of the world We have been at peace save two Indian outbreaks affecting but a few thousand people, while actual and threatened wars have disturbed the quiet of all Europe and a part of Asia during the entire year We have been making steady progress toward substantial prosperity while England, Germany and Russia have been experiencing the most severe financial distress The work of our farmers has been blest with abundant crops while famine has devastated nearly one half of the habitable globe We discuss below some of the more important of these events

YELLOW FEVER

During the year our country was visited by a terrible yellow fever epidemic The fever was introduced into this country by the bark Emily Souder which landed at New Orleans May 23 It did not spread rapidly at first. About August 1 it reached Memphis and from that time until nearly Nov 1 it raged with great fury The general direction in which the fever spread was northeast, spreading through the valley of the Mississippi to its junction with the Ohio and thence through the Ohio valley to Louisville

The disease was very contagious and fatal In Memphis of the 16,000 who remained, 14,400 or 90 per cent. had the fever About 4,330 died, or 27 per cent. of the number remaining In that city 29 physicians, 21 of whom were strangers, died while in the discharge of their duties The following is a list of the deaths from yellow fever from May 23 to Nov 1

It is also estimated that a loss of $175,000,000 was incurred by the interruption of business in the Mississippi valley Among the pleasanter features of this terrible scourge was the generous outpouring of money and the self sacrifice of volunteer nurses and physicians. The history of the epidemic when written will be full of examples of the sublimest heroism The south was much affected by the generosity of the north and sectional feeling was much softened if not banished The following is a list of contributions of cities giving $1,000 and upwards through the various city committees and does not include the very large amount contributed through the Young Men's Christian Association and various other religious societies

The report of the yellow fever commission at Richmond November 20 contained the following conclusions

First We have not in a solitary instance found a case of yellow fever which we could justifiably consider of de novo origin or indigenous to its locality

Second—In respect to most of the various towns which we visited and which were points of epidemic prevalence, the testimony showing the importation was direct and convincing [illegible]

Third The transmission of yellow fever, between points separated by any considerable distances appeared to be wholly due to human intercourse In many instances [illegible] about the persons of people from infected district In other instances it was conveyed in [illegible] commodities [illegible] of the same description

[illegible] the weight of the testimony is very pronounced against the further use of disinfectants Physicians in infected [illegible] almost without exception [illegible] that [illegible] spread [illegible]

Fifth—Prophylaxis by means of drugs or other therapeutic means has proved a constant failure A respectable number of physicians think the use of small doses of quinine of some use in preventing

Sixth—Quarantine established with such a degree of surveillance and rigor that absolute non-intercourse is the result have effectually and without exception protected its subjects from yellow fever

SCIENCE

The greatest steps in science have been taken unconsciously and years have been required to establish the position of some of the most wonderful inventions and discoveries For this reason it is difficult to place a reliable estimate on the value of the scientific researches of 1878 The microtasimeter of Mr Edison was used with signal success in the observation of the eclipse of July [illegible] and will be of great value to astronomers The electric light may if certain plans are successful supersede all other light This year has been marked by the wildest speculations on this subject and only experience can tell us the practical value of this discovery The Sawyer Mann lamp is as yet its only practical application The claim of Mr Lockyer that all the elements are resolvable into one will work a complete revolution in chemistry if proven The observations of the eclipse showed the existence of inter mercurial planets and modified the theory of the corona The removal of Cleopatra's needle from the Nile to the Thames is among the most notable achievements of engineering

FISHERY AWARD

The most important event in our relations with foreign countries has been the payment of the fishery award The fishery question has almost always been an open one In January 1871 the British government asked for a settlement of some serious questions which had arisen between our fishermen and English subjects on the coast of the Dominion of Canada This resulted in the Treaty of Washington, signed May 8, 1871 which provided in article 22 that inasmuch as it is asserted by the government of her Britannic Majesty that the privileges accorded to the citizens of the United States under Article 18 of this treaty are of greater value than those accorded by articles 19 and 21 of this treaty to the subjects of her Britannic Majesty and this assertion is not admitted by the government of the United States it is further agreed that commissioners shall be appointed to determine, having regard to the privileges accorded by the United States to the subjects of her Britannic Majesty as stated in articles 19 and 21 of this treaty the amount of any compensation which in their opinion ought to be paid by the government of the United States to the government of her Britannic Majesty in return for the privileges accorded to the citizens of the United States under article 18 of this treaty and that any sum of money which the said commissioners may so award shall be paid by the United States government in a gross sum within 12 months after such award shall have been given

In accordance with this treaty a commission was finally organized June 15, 1877 composed of Sir Alexander Galt appointed by the British government Hon Ensign H Kellogg appointed by our government and M Maurice Delfosse appointed by common consent by the Austrian ambassador at London On the [illegible] day of November 1877 M Maurice Delfosse and Sir A T Galt signed a report that the United States government ought in equity pay the sum of $5,500,000 in gold in return for privileges granted by Great Britain Hon E H Kellogg signed a minority report which held that greater privileges were granted to Great Britain than to the United States and also stated that in his opinion the decision should be made with unanimous consent

The subject came up before the last session of congress and finally $5,500,000 was appropriated with a proviso attached that our government should pay the award only under a protest Secretary Evarts immediately opened correspondence with Great Britain protesting against the award because it was not a unanimous one and also because it was not in accord with the facts and law presented to the commission Lord Salisbury insisted that unanimity was not necessary and [illegible] declined to enter into a discussion of the merits of the award Accordingly our minister at the court of St James paid the award November 21 saying in his note I am instructed by the president to say that such payment is made upon the ground that the government of the United States desires to place maintenance of good faith in treaties and security and value of arbitration between nations above the question in its relations with Her Britannic Majesty's government as with all other powers

I am [illegible] instructed by the president to say that the government of the United States [illegible] the [illegible] importance [illegible] the common and friendly [illegible] government [illegible] the recurrence [illegible] questions [illegible] [illegible] government should be [illegible] the government of the United States cannot accept the result of the Halifax commission as furnishing any just measure of the value of a participation by our citizens in the inshore fisheries of the British [illegible] and [illegible] the actual payment now [illegible] be considered [illegible] and [illegible] in a prece[dent] [illegible] interest [illegible] reference to that effect

THE FINANCES

The past year has been one of decided financial prosperity notwithstanding the darkness amid which it opened The minimum displayed by the inflation silver advocates and the passage of the silver bill for a short time placed the government credit under a cloud United States securities were rapidly returned from Europe and the funding of the debt into four per cent bonds which had been commenced so auspiciously was effectually stopped But fortunately the very favorable state of trade enabled us to absorb the returning securities without any financial revulsion War in Europe and abundant crops at home contributed to this result In April and May a loan of $50,000,000 in 4½ per cents was made for resumption purposes and this marked a better era In August the four per cent bonds commenced selling rapidly so that the sales now average $1,500,000 a day the saving in interest on each day's sale amounting to $30,000 annually The premium on gold entirely disappeared about the middle of December so that for the first time since 1862 we are now doing business on a specie basis This very favorable condition of affairs is largely due to the wisdom and determination of the administration whose every step in the direction of resumption has been opposed by the greenback and democratic parties now in a majority on a popular vote

The very favorable condition of foreign trade deserves special mention For ten years preceding June 30 1873 the average excess of the imports over the exports was $104,706,922 In 1876 for the first time in many years our exports exceeded our imports In 1876 the excess was $79,643,451 in 1877 $151,152,094 and in 1878 $257,814,234 From present indications the excess for 1879 will be at least $350,000,000 This excess of exports over imports is due to several causes We are now manufacturing many things which we formerly bought abroad, notably railroad iron the hard times have reduced the importation of luxuries and we have largely increased the exportation of raw and manufactured products Not since the war has a year opened with such flattering indications of real financial prosperity as the year 1879 and it is to be sincerely hoped that no foolish legislation in congress will mar our prospects

We might add in regard to the silver question that the three commissioners appointed under the provisions of the silver bill of February 28 1878 met last summer with the representatives of other nations at Paris but no common ratio between gold and silver could be agreed upon The meeting of the commission however drew attention to the danger which would result from the further demonetization of silver, and will probably lead to some practical measures to stop it

THE EASTERN QUESTION

Hostilities between Turkey and Russia really ceased on January 9 when General Radetzky captured the Turkish army in Shipka pass A treaty between Russia and Turkey was signed [illegible] at San Stefano The following were the principal points in it

1 Batoum Kars Ardahan and the district of Bayazid to be ceded to Russia

2 The question of the straits to be reserved for further consideration

3 The question of navigation of the Danube remains in status quo

4 A zone to be left between Montenegro and Servia so as to enable the porte to maintain communication with Bosnia and Herzegovina

5 The new principality of Bulgaria to include Bourgas Varna and Kustendje but not Salonica nor Adrianople

6 Russia to have power to cede the Dobrudja to Roumania in exchange for Roumanian Bessarabia

The money indemnity to be £17,000,000 in addition to the territorial cession

April 1st Lord Salisbury addressed a circular to other continental powers in which he complained of Russia's unwillingness to submit the treaty before a congress of powers and criticised the treaty in detail This resulted finally in the Berlin congress which was presided over by Prince Bismarck and composed of representatives from all the leading European governments A treaty was signed by all the representatives July 14th This treaty took away some of the power of Russia in the reorganization of Bulgaria, and gave Austria a strong foothold among the Slavs The treaty modified the former treaty at San Stefano and provides for a definite carrying out of its provisions to prevent a pretext for war on the part of Russia This virtually closed the eastern question for the present

THE AFGHAN WAR

The Afghan war was commenced November 21 when the English troops advanced on Khyber pass The cause of th[e war] [illegible] the reception [illegible] the [illegible] Nevill Chamberlain who was accompanied by 1,000 soldiers [illegible] [illegible] Lord Lytton [illegible] an ultimatum [illegible] [illegible] correspondence with Ameer Shere Ali finally sent an ultimatum which concludes with these words For the [illegible] enmity and indignity the empress of India in the person of her envoy your letter affords no explanation [illegible] nor does it [illegible] any [illegible] possible for a [illegible] and transaction [illegible] between two governments In consequence of this [illegible] I have assembled her Majesty's forces on your frontier but I desire to give you a last opportunity of averting the calamities of war For this it is necessary that a full and suitable apology be offered by you in writing and tendered on British territory by an officer of sufficient rank Furthermore as it has been found impossible to maintain satisfactory relations between the two states unless the British government is adequately represented in Afghanistan, it will be necessary that you should consent to receive a permanent British mission within your territory It is further essential that you should undertake that no injury shall be done by you to the tribes who acted as guides to my mission and that reparation shall be made for any damage they have suffered from you and if any injury be done by you to them the British government will at once take steps to protect them Unless these conditions are accepted fully and plainly by you and your acceptance received by me not later than the 20th of November I shall be compelled to consider your intentions as hostile and to treat you as a declared enemy of the British government

As no reply was received from the Ameer before the 20th General Brown advanced on Ali Musjeed a strong fortress which he easily captured Then followed in rapid succession small battles in which the English were universally victorious The last intelligence is that the Ameer has fled and that the English are assured of victory

SOCIALISM IN GERMANY

The two attempts on the life of the Emperor of Germany by Hodel and Nobiling drew special attention to the dangers of socialism In January 1877 the socialist party made heavy gains in the parliament by election and carried Berlin The emperor at this time specially warned against this evil at the opening of the next parliament The vote of this party in 1871 was 140,000 but in 1877 it had increased to 550,000 The party in Berlin boasts 115,000 male members and 5,000 female members About 145 lecturers are sustained in Germany by this organization and papers are published reaching 500,000 people These two great social forces the press and lyceum, are rapidly diffusing the principles of communism

June 11th Prince Bismarck dissolved the Reichstag and a new one was elected. October 19th after a long discussion the socialist bill was adopted by a vote of 221 to 149 The operation of the bill is limited to two and and half years The bill is not considered wise legislation as it proposes to check the socialist movement by force Had it not been for the attempts on the life of the emperor such a bill could not have passed It was molded by the iron hand of Bismarck who is a firm believer in absolute monarchy Since the passage of the bill there has been no action taken by the socialists worthy of mention

FAMINE AND BANKRUPTCY

During the past year there has been a terrible famine in Asia It has been estimated that at least 10,000,000 people have perished from starvation in China alone One reason for so great a loss of life has been the inability to afford sufficient transportation to carry food to the districts where the crops had failed This famine also spread in India causing untold suffering and woe The northern part of Africa and parts of South America have also been visited by this fell destroyer

England is just now passing through a commercial crisis, Only her immense accumulation of capital averts the terrible experience [illegible] English manufacturers have been unable during the year to compete successfully with other nations The workingmen say this is owing to an overproduction and the manufacturers say to the high price of labor As the two parties could not agree labor strikes have been prevalent all over England reducing the laboring people to the verge of starvation To further increase the difficulties, the bank of Glasgow failed October [illegible] with liabilities estimated at $50,000,000 thus inducing a severe monetary panic Since this date the condition of the people in manufacturing districts has been terrible And every mail comes laden with heartrending tales of sorrow and suffering

THE "JOHNNY REB" PAPERS, by an "ex-Confederate" soldier, will be among the raciest contributions to Scribner during the year. They are written and illustrated by Mr. Allen C. Redwood, of Baltimore. The first of the series, "Johnny Reb at Play," appears in the November number.

PORTRAITS OF AMERICAN POETS.

This series (begun in August with the portrait of Bryant) will be continued, that of Longfellow appearing in November. These portraits are drawn from life—by Wyatt Eaton and engraved by T. Cole. It is the only newspaper in the country maintaining a special [illegible] national capital. Its Washington dispatches are much the fullest anywhere published. Its London correspondent, George W. Smalley, is recognized as the foremost in that field, on the American press. Its [illegible] foreign correspondence ranks exceptionally high. Its scientific, religious and literary intelligence is more full, and generally more newsy than that furnished by journals expressly devoted to these specialties. Its critical departments are conducted by the old heads, recognized authorities:

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

Especially adapted to the large class of intelligent readers too far from New York to expect the papers for the daily news, who nevertheless want the editorials, correspondence, book reviews, scientific matter, lectures, literary miscellany, etc., for which the Tribune is famous. This is the cheapest, and for remote country readers, the best edition of the Tribune published. It contains sixteen pages and is in convenient form for binding. It is the most [illegible] four times [illegible] New York.

NO RIVALS TO COMPARE IT WITH.

[illegible] Weekly and Semi-Weekly Tribune are now entirely [illegible] corresponding issues from any other daily [illegible] in New York—wholly different in form and appearance, with large type, and only comparable to the three [illegible] dollar religious or literary journals. The prices, however, remain far below them, [illegible] to defy competition [illegible] than have ever [illegible] papers.

THE GREAT PREMIUM.

WEBSTER'S UNABRIDGED FREE.

Last year the Tribune offered to five years' subscribers the unprecedented gift of Webster's Unabridged Quarto Pictorial Dictionary, which retails in all bookstores for $12. The offer proved probably the greatest success in the history of newspaper premiums. Ten thousand of these huge dictionaries were distributed, and [illegible] We have at last succeeded in renewing the very favorable contract with the publishers [illegible] magnificent premium [illegible] We therefore urge all to avail themselves of the offer at once, and to advise their friends and neighbors of the opportunity. We are renewing the terms of the offer, for a year, a little, as follows:

We will send Webster's Unabridged Pictorial Quarto Dictionary, [illegible] bound in sheep, the latest [illegible] as a gift to any one remitting us

$10 for a single five years subscription in advance, or [illegible]	For Weekly Tribune
$15 for a single five years subscription in advance, or [illegible]	For Semi-Weekly Tribune
$[illegible] for a single three years subscription in advance, to	For Daily Tribune

We believe this to be the most valuable and liberal newspaper premium ever [illegible]. We cannot make it any more liberal, and to avoid useless correspondence we give notice that the dictionary will only be sent on exact compliance with the terms. Reduced offers, under any circumstances, to persons remitting for clubs at regular club rates. We can, however, make the following subscription [illegible]

PREMIUMS TO FRIENDS SENDING LOCAL CLUBS.

January 1st Supplement.

We intended to present to our patrons this morning a full review of the city, county and state in a large supplement. But the inability of the plumber to put in the motor has compelled us to delay its publication, as we are not able to do the press work in our job department. We have accumulated such a large amount of original matter that we did not like to give up the publication and have decided to carry out our intention at a later date say about January 10th. Articles on mines have been prepared by J. L. Loomis, assayer at Leadville, Wm. Holly, late of the Ouray Times, and Carl Wulsten. A large mass of statistics on the stock business and agriculture have been gathered and carefully prepared. The city of Colorado Springs and El Paso county will be fully noticed. We would like those who want extra copies to leave their orders in the office as soon as possible. Single orders to the number of 500 copies have already been received. Single copies will be five cents.

Happy New Year.

No paper to-morrow.

Legal holiday to-day.

Sleighing for New Years.

Take heed that ye fall not.

The legislature met at noon to-day

The Catholic fair closed last evening.

Sore throats and colds are quite prevalent.

Good resolutions are the order of the day.

The market was full of antelope meat yesterday.

We are in the midst of the shortest days of the year.

Remember the ball at Court House hall this evening.

Particularly about this time, be sure and help the poor.

This is the day to "break off" from all your bad habits.

Last night and the night before were comparatively mild.

The teachers of the Divide have organized a "Divide Teachers' Association."

War will be waged on Turkey to-day. The implements of battle will be the knife and fork.

We are informed that the ladies of the city will none of them receive calls until after 2 p. m.

Commence your diaries to day. You will find it rather interesting for about a week, after which

Nearly all the poor laborers can be kept at work if the owners of property will employ them in cleaning the sidewalks of snow.

The watch-night services at the Methodist church last evening were well attended, and the interest manifested throughout was very marked.

An exchange says: The Almighty can hear the rattle of a ton of coal or a bag of potatoes given to a poor man further than he can the most ornate prayer shouted from the stateliest tabernacle in the land.

Eastern ladies consider it "out of fashion" to furnish wines and liquors to their guests on New Year's day. Coffee has been substituted. A sensible idea which we understand the ladies of this city propose to follow.

Tom Pascoe, of the United States restaurant, will serve meals to-day from 8 to 11 a. m., and from 2.30 to 4.30 p. m. These hours will also be adopted on Sundays, and fifty cents for dinner will take the place of the former price charged.

We have just received No. 1 of volume 1 of the Congregational News, a neat little sheet published under the auspices of the Congregational church of this place, and edited by the pastor, Rev. R. T. Cross. It is full of interesting matter, and will be received with delight by many families.

O. J. Kennedy, son of J. R. Kennedy superintendent of the Deaf-Mute Asylum, was married at Leadville on Saturday last to Miss Anna Watkins. He returned to this city last evening with his wife and received the cordial greetings of his friends. Mr. Kennedy's name has been suggested for the position of Sergeant-at-Arms of our senate. No better choice could be made.

There was lots of sport at Unity Hall last evening, the occasion being a grand ball given by the colored young men of the city. They were out in full force, each accompanied by his dulciana. The dresses were in many cases, to say the least, gorgeous, while the gentlemen wore equally superb costumes. The amount of hair oil and scent stuffs was truly prodigious, and the hall, from general appearances and the pleasant odors that greeted one's olfactories seemed like a garden of flowers. Prof. Briglieb and band discoursed music.

Will Receive.

The following ladies will receive calls to-day at the places designated:

Miss Mason and Miss Kenyon at Mrs. Marchant's, North Tejon street.

Mrs. S. B. Westerfield and Miss Dell Barton at Mrs. Westerfield's in Hodgman block.

Mrs. Fred Conant at residence on N. Cascade avenue.

Mrs. A. D. Davis, assisted by Mrs. Southworth, Miss McPherson, Miss Donaghe and Miss Spaulding, at residence corner of Tejon and Boulder streets.

The Misses Stewart and Aiken will receive with Miss Smith and Mrs. Fairfield at their residence on East Huerfano street.

Miss Jennie Quereau assisted by Mrs. Prowitt and Miss Covert, will receive in No. 8, National Hotel, after 2 p. m.

Under the Wheels.

Charles Morris, a Kansas Pacific brakeman met with a terrible accident at Carson yesterday. He was with a west-bound freight train, and when leaving Carson he tried to board the train; his feet were knocked from under him by a snow bank through which the train was passing; and in attempting to make the leap to the step he was, by another snow bank, hurled under the wheels of the cars. His right leg was cut off below the knee, and his left foot was cut off at the instep. The unfortunate man was taken on board the train and attended as well as possible under the circumstances; and upon his arrival here was taken to the Centennial Hotel, where Drs. Steele and Parker took charge of his case and made the necessary amputations. Democrat.

Last Night's Ball.

About fifty couples assembled in Military Hall last evening, in response to invitations issued by several of the young gentlemen of this city, to participate in a social hop. The idea of dancing out the old year and in the new year was so novel that many were induced to attend for this reason.

At 10 o'clock Messrs. Butts and De Cunto appeared with violin and harp and taking their places upon the platform, with a few magic touches, soon had the floor covered with dancers. The approach of midnight was eagerly watched, and at the first stroke of the bell as the town clock struck 12 the interchange of congratulations and new year's greetings was instantaneous and hearty. From that time until the small hours of morning the dance was continued, and the party finally broke up, every one greatly pleased with its success.

The Y. M. C. A. Entertainment and Sociable.

On Friday evening at Court House Hall, will take place the first entertainment given by the Young Men's Christian Association, of this city. The affair is under the direction of appropriate committees, and no pains have been spared to make it the most enjoyable occasion of the season. The following is the programme, which, as will be observed, may be set down as "extra good;"

1—FLUTE SOLO.....
Mr E J Lake.

2—DUET—"Larboard Watch."..... Williams
Messrs Irving and Rouse.

3—READING.....
Miss Mabel Wiley.

4—SOLO—"Robin Redbreast."..... .....

8—SOLO—"Sing, Sweet Bird".....

After the rendition of the musical and literary programme, those present will be invited to partake of refreshments, and spend the balance of the evening in as social a manner as possible. The admission has been placed at 25 cents, which pays the bill for the entertainment and the refreshments. The doors will be open at 7; entertainment will begin at 7:30.

The Catholic Fair.

Court house hall last evening contained the largest number of persons that have been in attendance upon the fair at any one time since its commencement. The voting on the cane and the sale of chances for the fancy articles was very spirited. Dancing was enjoyed until 10 o'clock and the balance of the evening was devoted to a general good time.

The following articles were awarded to the fortunate winners:

Picture of the Pope, to P. G. Murray; pickle fork, Minnie Roman; hanging basket, Eva Vandenberg; gold ring, E. O. Pourtalis; pin and ear rings, Minnie Roman; large doll, Maggie Noonan; saddle, F. Flannigan; blanket, Wm. Knarr; shawl, L. O. Pourtalis; caster, T. B. Finn; gold pen, H. Patterson; ladies' boots, Mr. Ackerman; billiard table, J. M. Ellison.

At 9 o'clock it was announced that the polls would be closed at 10.30, and that voting on the cane must then cease. This of course put the friends of the contesting parties on the alert, and up to the closing of the polls the voting was very spirited. The polls were closed promptly on time and a few minutes after the result of the vote was announced as follows: J. M. Ellison 672, Matt France 534, Peter Becker 115. Mr. Ellison's friends were numerous, and late in the evening made a "spurt" so that the cane was voted to him by 138 votes over Mayor France. The fair will close this evening with a grand ball, at which time much sport is anticipated. At 10 o'clock p. m. the cane will be presented to Mr. Ellison. Let there be a large attendance.

DIED.

In this city, at 2 o'clock on the night of Monday, December 30th, 1878, in the 46th year of her age, Mrs. Sarah B. Wade, wife of Joel Wade.

Mrs. Wade had long been sorely afflicted with a disease of the throat, and had tried various parts of the country with the hope of recovering, but was better satisfied with the climate of Colorado than that of any other state she had visited. She came to the city with her family about three and a half years ago, and undoubtedly her life was thereby prolonged, but death came at last. Mrs. Wade was a woman of a peculiarly happy disposition, very charitable of other people's faults, and always in sympathy with the erring and the suffering. The bereaved husband and daughter have the sympathy of a large number of sorrowing friends.

The funeral services will be held at Mr. Wade's residence, the last house on Tejon street south, at 1 o'clock to-day. The friends are invited.

THE CURRENCY QUESTION.

Notwithstanding the fact that thousands of our people are at present worrying themselves almost to death over this vexed question, even to the extent of neglecting their business, their homes and their duty to their families, there are still thousands upon thousands of smart, hard working, intelligent men pouring into the great Arkansas Valley, the Garden of the West, where the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad offers them their choice of 2,500,000 acres of the finest farming lands in the world at almost their own prices. If you do not believe it, write to the undersigned, who will tell you where you can get a cheap land exploring ticket, and how, at a moderate expense, you can see for yourself and be convinced.

A WAR INCIDENT.

DEAR DOCTOR: You did a good turn for me; you saved my life. To be sure you left me minus a leg in doing it, but life is sweet even but with one foot to hobble through the world with. It was down at ; it was a bloody day—but a glorious one! You remember how but I beg pardon, I always forget myself when I get talking about those old times. This is what I want to tell you. One morning last week I awoke feeling very strange. For a time my liver had been rebellious, but I had anticipated no trouble. But that morning I discovered that my stomach had joined the revolt and a lively skirmish was being carried on that threatened to end in a hard battle. The suddenness of the revolt put the head-quarters in confusion, and all seemed hopeless till, suddenly, like one of those flashing orders of Grant, came the command, "Get Dr. Sherman Compound Prickly Ash Bitters." A courier was immediately dispatched for them and finding them only at Sagendorf & Wallace's, he brought me two bottles, and now what I want to say is this: I feel like a volunteer who has just received his commission, or, better still, as well as Grant did when he held Lee's sword. And I want to advise all who suffer from a rebellious liver and stomach to "fight it out on this line," and they will surely be victorious.

Job Department

is now being replenished with the most elegant modern scripts and other faces, which enable us successfully to compete with any establishment in the country in the production of Artistic Printing.

As is well known, our facilities in the use of steam and fast presses are such that we are prepared to turn out work rapidly; at the same time, employing none but the best of printers, we do it well. These facts are substantiated every day by actual work.

Please Remember

when you want a good newspaper or first-class job work at low figures, call at the

GAZETTE

Steam Printing House,

COLORADO SPRINGS.
